

BIOGRAPHY – Delena Spates-Allen

Delena Spates-Allen, is the Procurement Manager at Saginaw Future, a non-profit, economic development organization. She has worked in the Procurement Office since 1987. Spates-Allen received her Associate’s Certificate in Contract Management from The George Washington University’s School of Business and is currently pursuing her Master’s Certificate in Government Contracting.

Spates-Allen received her Associates Degree from Great Lakes Jr. College and her Bachelor’s Degree from Northwood University.

Spates-Allen is on the Board of Directors of the statewide organization Procurement Technical Assistance Centers of Michigan (PTAC’s). Since 2008, she has served as the President. Spates-Allen has been on the Executive Board of the PTAC’s for the past 6 years.

Spates-Allen has served and continues to serve on numerous boards and commissions including the Saginaw County Minority Business Development Center, the Saginaw Housing Commission, the Saginaw County Planning Commission, Saginaw County Parks and Recreation, and the treasurer for the Michigan Association of School Boards Black Caucus.

Established in 1992, Saginaw Future (SF) is a public-private alliance of local businesses, the County of Saginaw, City of Saginaw, 16 local municipalities and the Saginaw County Chamber of Commerce. SF’s strategic partners also include education, labor and government. Since its beginning, SF has remained dedicated to fostering quality job creation through expansion of local industry and attraction of new business projects to the community.